Eat this Bread, Drink this Cup

Rev. Brenda L. Greenwald

Dear Church,

Back in 1997, the Fifth Biennial Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA adopted The Use of the Means of Grace: A Statement on the Practice of Word and Sacrament. The document offers precisely what its title suggests: it sets the standards by which the use of the sacraments should be followed.

The document (available online or can be borrowed from Pastor Brenda) upholds the teachings of the Book of Concord (basically, all the things that Lutherans confess - and is also available online or can be borrowed from Pastor Brenda) and applies them to present-day worship.

I tell you about these important, pieces of Lutheran writing because it is by these standards that the decision has recently been made to switch from alcoholic wine to juice during Holy Communion.

"Some communicants suffer from allergic reactions or are recovering from alcoholism... For pressing reasons of health... Congregations might decide to place ... non-wheat bread or nonalcoholic wine or grape juice on the altar. Such pastoral and congregational decisions are delicate, and must honor both the tradition of the Church and the people of each local assembly." Part III, Principle 44, Application 44C

This change has been done to accommodate those who are abstaining from alcohol, those with an allergy to wheat, gluten, or grapes. Nowhere in the written Word of God do we see a command or requirement relative to the fermentation level of the cup's contents, nor is any preference given in The Use and Means of Grace document to unleavened or leavened bread. Since both forms of bread have a precedent in Christian history, both are acceptable. The same logic has been applied to what we drink.

There was a phrase used above (and many times in The Use and Means of Grace) that was the guiding light when making such a decision: "Such pastoral and congregational decisions are delicate, and must honor both the tradition of the Church and the people of each local assembly."

Honoring both tradition and people - that's the key here. Various practices have changed and been modified over the years: monthly communion vs. weekly, common vs. individual cup, bread vs. wafer. When even one person cannot partake in the Meal set before us, however, we must re-evaluate our traditions, and find ways to make God's table accessible and welcoming to absolutely ALL.

"The [elements] of Communion are handled with care and reverence, out of a sense of the value both of what has been set apart by the Word as a bearer of the presence of Christ and of God's good creation." Pt III, Prin. 47

In addition to these practical reasons, since we know that Jesus instituted the Lord's Supper for our benefit, we can hold a faithful confidence that God continues to guide our conversations and decisions regarding this matter. We gather for Communion, as the wheat is gathered from the fields, and the grapes from the vine, together with the saints. I invite you to receive this change in the manner in which it was presented: with trust in our Savior's promise of presence, and grace in our hearts.

Eat this bread, drink this cup, Come to me and never be hungry
Eat this bread, drink this cup, Trust in me and you will not thirst.
 ELW Hymn #472

Pr. Brenda

Living Trust Update

When the People of Gethsemane were gifted with a generous Living Trust in July of 2022, certain monetary decisions needed to be put in place so that the Trust would be used in a fiscally responsible manner, and for what the anonymous donors intended: "fully launch and sustain your digital ministries, fund and allow you to begin your financial assistance ministry as well as support any local social ministry projects to feed the hungry, protect the vulnerable, and serve the elderly with generosity, charity, and gentleness." To that end, we wanted to share the flowchart by which we make our decisions with you.

As a reminder:

The Living Trust WON'T be Used for:

- Won't pay the electric bill or be sent to the Synod or give anyone a RAISE
- Won't fix the Septic tank or furnace or roof or resurface the parking lot

This Living Trust This OVER $232,000 Living Trust

WILL be Used for:

- Upgrade our Connectivity: Beef up our WIFI System so that we can stream smoothly and without network interruptions
- Purchase Video Equipment: small, unobtrusive, yet powerful cameras to live-stream services and events, connecting families worldwide
- Enhancing the Sound System: obtaining microphones that pick-up the sounds of the Sanctuary (really hearing those baptismal coos)
- Local Social and Financial Assistance Ministry Projects: Walking in the footsteps of Jesus as we tend to those on the margins.

Dwelling in the Word

Colossians 3:16

Dwelling in the Word is a 20-30-minute process for becoming aware of God's presence and the Spirit's movement by listening and reflecting on Scripture as a gathered community. Dwelling in the Word forms faith and trust within a group by sharing responses to three questions:

1. What captures my attention?
2. What questions do I have?
What do I wonder?
3. Where might God's Spirit be nudging us?

The word "dwell" or "abide" is used frequently in Scripture. It means to live or remain somewhere or with someone for a time. The practice of Dwelling in the Word invites communities to live with a text for a time so that the reflections, wonderings, and promptings of God's Word form and shape our faith and living. The purpose of Dwelling in the Word is not about answering questions or getting to particular results, but rather allowing ourselves to be present with God's living Word. (Thus, Dwelling in the Word does not require a leader steeped in biblical scholarship.)

Join the whole Northern Great Lakes Synod in Dwelling in the Word.

Visit <https://bit.ly/DwellNGLS> for monthly Scripture passages that you can use to begin your meetings: Council, quilting, Faith Formation, Women's Group - whatever meeting you have, begin with this brief devotion and Dwell in the same Word together.

Also, you are invited to join the Synod Council (Pastor Brenda will be there), via Zoom, to Dwell in that monthly Word the first Thursday of every month, beginning in September. The Zoom link will be on the Synod website.

May our Synod be blessed as we listen to God through Dwelling in the Word!
